
Apartment Rules and Regulations

GENERAL

This agreement is an addendum and part of the rental agreement between Landlord/Manager and Tenant.

New rules and regulations or amendments to these rules may be adopted by the Landlord/Manager upon giving thirty (30) days' notice in writing. These rules, and any changes or amendments, serve a legitimate purpose and are not intended to be arbitrary or significantly modify Tenant rights. These rules will be enforced equally. The Tenant is responsible for the conduct of their guests and ensuring adherence to these rules at all times.

Tenants must inform the Landlord/Manager of any new phone number promptly.

NOISE AND CONDUCT

- Tenants shall not make or allow any disturbing noises in the unit or do anything that interferes with the rights, comforts, or convenience of other residents.
 - Musical instruments, televisions, stereos, radios, etc., must be used at a volume that does not disturb others.
 - The conduct of Tenants, their guests, and minor children in common areas, parking lots, or recreational facilities must always be reasonable and non-disruptive.
 - Loud talking, visiting, or lounging in common areas that may disturb other tenants is not allowed.

CLEANLINESS AND TRASH

- Units must be kept clean, sanitary, and free from unpleasant odors.
- Tenants shall assist in maintaining the cleanliness of outside common areas.

- Littering of paper, cigarette butts, or other trash is not allowed.
 - Trash or materials that pose a health, fire, or safety hazard are strictly prohibited.

MAINTENANCE, REPAIRS, AND ALTERATIONS

- If a smoke detector is provided, the Tenant must regularly test it to ensure it functions properly and replace batteries as needed, unless otherwise prohibited by law.
 - The Tenant must immediately notify management in writing of any defect or malfunction.
 - All repair requests (e.g., for dripping faucets or faulty light switches) must be submitted in writing. Emergency issues should be reported immediately.
 - Service requests must not be made to maintenance personnel directly.
 - The Tenant is responsible for repairs or pipe/drain blockages caused by negligence or improper use and must pay any related charges.
 - Alterations or improvements require prior written consent from management.
 - The Tenant is responsible for restoring the property to its original condition, including removing any fixtures or attachments. Use of glue or tape on walls or other surfaces is prohibited.

SAFETY

- Smoking is prohibited in the unit and all shared property areas.
- All doors must be locked when the Tenant is absent.
- All appliances, except refrigerators, must be turned off before leaving.
- For absences longer than five (5) days, the Tenant must notify management of their expected return date.
- If someone is entering the unit during the Tenant's absence, prior written permission must be given to management.

- The use or storage of gasoline, solvents, or other flammable materials in the unit is strictly prohibited.
- Use of charcoal barbecues is not allowed unless approved by the Landlord/Manager.
- No personal belongings (e.g., bicycles, toys) may be left in hallways, stairways, or common areas.
- Children must always be supervised by a responsible adult.
- Burning candles in bedrooms is prohibited. In common areas, candles must be attended at all times.

GARBAGE AND BELONGINGS

1. Garbage must be placed in the provided containers daily. Lids should be closed gently.
2. Furniture and personal items must be kept inside the unit or in storage areas approved in writing by the Landlord/Manager. Unauthorized items outside the unit may be removed, and the Tenant may be charged for removal.
3. Hallways and other common areas must remain clear of articles.
4. Items such as clothing, rugs, or curtains must not be hung or shaken from windows, ledges, or balconies.
